PROJECTS

Scenestamps - scenestamps.com

April 2024 - Present

Fullstack Developer

scenestamps.com is a website where users can share their favorite scenes from movies, tv shows with timestamps. I created this in order to address the issue of not finding website with searchable features having scenes from a movie or tv-show with timestamp. While there are plenty of websites that cover quotes/dialogues from movies, none of them have scene related data, making this a kind of it's own.
